SALARY TOO SMALL

Oklahoma Judges Want Better Compensation.

FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS

Considered to be the Proper Pay for Their Services.

Guthrie, O. T., Jan. 22.—A dispatch from Washington announces that Chief Justice Burford of Oklahoma and his associates are expected there within the next few weeks to appear before the judicial committees of the house and senate to urge the passage of the Flynn bill increasing the salaries of the judges to $5,000 per annum. Delegate Flynn believes that the bill will pass and is now paving the way for a satisfactory settlement.

The bill introduced by Delegate Flynn creating a supreme court for the territory of Oklahoma, the passage of which will also be urged by the Oklahoma judges, is as follows:

"Be it enacted by the senate and house of representatives of the United States in congress assembled,

That hereafter the supreme court of the territory of Oklahoma shall consist of a chief justice and six associate justices, any four of whom shall constitute a quorum, but four judges must concur to render an opinion reversing a judgment or other determination of the district court, as now provided by law. The supreme court of said territory shall define the jurisdiction and shall fix the times and places at each court shall be held and designate the judges who shall preside therein. Each judge after assignment, shall reside in the district to which he is assigned. The supreme court of said territory, or the chief justice thereof, may make any justice to try a particular case or cases in any district or to hold the district court in any other district when the judge of said district is absent from his district or has been declared incompetent or is of kin to either party to the action or interested or biased or prohibited in the case, or if any other cause of disqualification is established or unable to hold said court, and whenever any judge is holding court outside the county in which he resides he shall be paid in the same manner as the expenses of the United States judges are now paid.

Section 4. That the district in each of which said justices shall reside shall be defined by the supreme court of said territory.

Section 5. That the supreme court, or any justice thereof, shall have power to stay in execution or enforce or any judgment or final order in any cause taken to any court by any appeal or proceedings, in virtue of such terms as may be prescribed by the court or justice granting such stay.

Section 6. That no justice of the supreme court of said territory shall sit as a member of said court or participate in the trial, hearing or decision of any case decided by him in the district court or in which he has any interest.
